

Applications Developer

(Applications Development & Support Level I or II)

We have an open position supporting College of Medicine applications. This position has the opportunity to develop skills in Oracle, SQL Server and .NET among other things. Please contact Suzanne Malo if you have questions about the position. Below is the ad ..

The Health Care Information Systems Department at the University of Iowa Hospitals & Clinics has programming positions available to assist in the development and support of existing database applications. Requires a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or MIS and applications development experience (typically 3-5 years for Level II; 1-3 years for Level I) or equivalent combination. Desirable qualifications include practical knowledge and/or experience in relational database theory and design; experience in database and web development; a working knowledge of WindowsXP/ Windows2000/SQL; and excellent written and verbal skills. Highly desirable qualifications include a working knowledge of project management, multidimensional analysis, OOP, Oracle, MS SQL Server, MS Access, and .NET.

To apply visit our website at <http://jobs.uiowa.edu> and search for Requisition #55671.